

My Online Therapie

My Online Therapie provides counselling and support by qualified therapists for people with different mental health problems. The clients can book their appointments with their desired therapist by a modern calendar system. It addresses people who e.g. wait for an appointment for a therapy, don't have the opportunity to look for a counsellor on-site or aren't sure yet whether they need professional help. The counselling is not appropriate for people with severe mental problems like e.g. schizophrenia.

It can be chosen between a 25- or 50 minutes one-to-one session via video or telephone.
